Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, United States goat cheeses are in demand by consumers and are replacing imported cheese; and,

WHEREAS, Due to the efficiency of the modern domestic dairy goat, which produces an excellent healthful milk, the dairy goat is becoming increasingly popular and useful on our family farms; and,

WHEREAS, United States farmers have developed a dairy goat that produces superior milk and is sought after and exported worldwide; and,

WHEREAS, There is a need to further educate consumers as to the high nutritional value of products made from goats' milk:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 11 through 17, 1988, as in South Dakota, and call upon the citizens of this great state to commemorate this week with appropriate programs, ceremonies, and activities.

DAIRY GOAT AWARENESS WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight.

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
